(2) For Rule 7 (1) of the Irish Teachers' Pension Rules, 1914, there shall be substituted the following Rule:-

Deductions on account of premiums under these Rules shall be made by deducting from any sum payable to a teacher on account of his quarterly or other salary a quarter or other proportionate part, as the case may be, of the annual premium appropriate to the grade in which the teacher was serving on 31st March, 1920 (or if not serving on that date, in the grade in which he last served). Teachers appointed after the 31st March, 1920, shall be regarded as serving in the Third Grade.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Irish Teachers' Pension Rules, 1914, or in the Supplementary Rules made subsequently, the Superintendent may allow a teacher (other than a teacher who retired before the 31st March, 1921) who gave notice in the prescribed manner of his desire that the Rules of 1914 should not apply to him to revoke such notice, if he so desire, within a period of three months from the enactment of this rule or, in the case of a teacher not serving at the date of the enactment of this Rule, within a period of three months after his return to the service, and thereupon, but subject to the payment with arrears as from the 1st January, 1915, with compound interest at two and a half per cent. per annum of any additional premiums due, the Rules of 1914 as amended by subsequent rules shall apply to such teacher.
